children," the Spirit seems to say, "And tell us what you have learned to-day." "Come, children," the Spirit seems to say, "And tell us what you have learned to-day."

VERSE IV.

"The mat..in bell was sweet and clear," "And the holly was bright to see," "And a word from our Ho..ly Mother dear "Was spoken right joyous..ly. "The Prince of Life,' she said, 'to-day "Was born, and poor in a manger lay." "The Prince of Life,' she said, 'to-day "Was born, and poor in a man..ger lay."

VERSE V.

"She told how shepherds watched the night "When the Son of the Highest was born," "How the wise men brought their treasures so bright, "And the an..gels waked the morn." "We know for whom we keep the day; "For HIM who once in a man..ger lay. "We know for whom we keep the day; "For HIM who once in a manger lay."

VERSE VI.

"O Je...su! Savior, once a child, "Come teach us to be like Thee; "Thou shalt be King with a rule so mild, "And we Thy servants will be. "To
